Tyler's Take

Not long ago, a frustrated man told his friends that he wasn't going to any more ball games. His friends wondered about this and so they asked him: "Why?" "Well," he said, this is WHY...

Every time I go to a game, they always ask for money.
 The other fans don't care about me.
 The seats are too hard.
 The Coach never visits me.
 The Referee makes calls I don't agree with.
 Some of the games go into overtime and make me late for dinner.
 The band plays songs I don't know.
 I have other things to do at game time.
 My parents took me to too many games when I was growing up.
 I know more than the Coaches do anyway.
 I can be just as good a fan at the lake or the beach.
 I won't take my kids to a game either. They must choose for themselves which teams to follow."

As silly as this may sound, I have actually heard each one of these excuses used before by church members. In fact, over the years, I have heard some very interesting reasons for why people are not coming to church. Some of these reasons are valid, but most of them are just plain silly. With that being said, I must confess, we can always find an excuse NOT to go to church and there may even be some good excuses mixed in there too.

Yet, when we fail to make "church" a priority in our lives, we can guarantee certain things will happen:

- The church we attend will be weaker because of our absence.
- We will not grow to become stronger, more mature Christians because we do not grow in isolation.
- We will not fulfill our sacred obligation to worship God, as He deserves.

So, let us commit to be here in this wonderful place of worship as much as we can and do all that we can to fully participate when we are in this house of God. We need you as much as you need the church, and we as a church must have your committed presence and participation if we are to continue to be a congregation that makes a difference in Jesus' name. Our church body longs for its missing members and desires for all of its membership to be fully engaged and fully alive.
